In the past few years there have been several changes of SOA leadership, and some uncertainty as to chapter support, with veterans wearing out or moving on. This year, however, will good wishes from the veterans, a new team headed by Bryant McLaughlin of South Carolina got strong support from the original SOA chapter, HMGS MidSouth. Of course, much reliance was placed on reaching active gaming groups and shops in an area centered on Augusta Ga.

As a result there were nearly 200 games and tournaments for De Bellis Antiquitates (DBA), Hordes of the Things (HOTT), Warrior, Flames of War (FOW), and several demonstrations. Attended by more than 200 gamers.

Friday night by the time I had unpacked my booth I had to scramble to set up my Spanish Civil War game. But my former partner Jim Brokaw was ready to go on his 15mm Age of Marlborough (WSS) Game:
